JUNIOR SPORT PROGRAMMES

Choices International focuses its educational principles on individualisation, on “learning through sports”, on freedom, interaction and teamwork, on enhancement and the quest for excellence, and on effort and physical activity. With unique programmes supporting young athletes Choices International maximises the sporting potential of high achievers along with their education, and offers students the chance to take their career to the next level.

The international focus of Choices International embodies the implementation of international programmes and supranational entities. Choices International is a pioneer in offering International Sport Programmes alongside language studies and English academic year programmes, offering a variety of options from A Levels to Foundation Year for students who take the latter option.

The core ideas which empower Choices International’s educational model is the passion for sports plus learning, so that students are able to adapt to a changing environment; personal balance with education in emotional intelligence; and the formation of global citizens with open minds and entrepreneurial spirits.
